

A COMPANY
FILM LICENSING INTERNATIONAL

BLUE VALENTINE

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| Genre | Drama, Romance |
| Country | USA |
| Production Year | 2010 |
| Director | Derek Cianfrance |
| Cast | Ryan Gosling, Michelle Williams, Mike Vogel |
| Running Time | 01:52 |
| Distributor | The Weinstein Company |
| Awards | OSCAR nomination Best Actress |

Nobody Baby But You And Me.

Description

A Film about a young couple trying to save their failing marriage. He comes from a broken home, works for a removals company, and says he's happy just to look after her and the daughter she had with another guy. She's a nurse, thinks he's wasting his potential, can barely abide his touch. Finally, they decide to go to a cheesily-futuristic hotel to see if they can patch things up. All they do is drink and pass out. Will the memories of their courtship succour them?

Plot Outline

The film centers on a contemporary married couple, charting their evolution over a span of years by cross-cutting between time periods.