Description

A week in the life of a young singer as he navigates the Greenwich Village folk scene of 1961

Plot Outline

Following worldwide hits NO COUNTRY FOR OLD MEN and TRUE GRIT, the infallible Coen brothers once again team up with legendary producer Scott Rudin on a very original new film set in the New York music scene. The film follows a week in the life of a young folk singer as he navigates the Greenwich Village folk scene of 1961. Guitar in tow, huddled against the unforgiving New York winter, he is struggling to make it as a musician against seemingly insurmountable obstacles -- some of them of his own making.
